

Q&A: Europe's Hot New Gay Porn Star, interview Chronicles Of Pornia

Baby, you're going to be a star! That's what instantly went through my mind the first time I laid eyes on porn pup newcomer Philippe Delvaux. It was the exact same feeling I got after having gotten a glimpse of Jeremy Jordan and Jesse Santana, both known for their exceptional bottoming prowess.

The next Euro gay porn star has arrived!

Philippe's eyes and youthful essence pull you into his world and once you gawk at his exquisite thick cock and bubble butt you're caught in a sexual haze.

Delvaux is likely to follow in the footsteps of Johan Volny and George Basten, both of whom have garnered tremendous porn acclaim for their sexual magnetism and ability to sustain fan bases which have followed their careers quite closely.

Philippe is on the fast track to becoming dream boy eye candy. He's probably one of the most exciting fresh faced Euro stars as of recent and seems to be enjoying his new global porn fame.

I've written about Delvaux several times and recently when an opportunity presented itself which would allow me to interview Philippe I didn't hesitate.

I knew virtually nothing about him but I've since discovered that he's a free-spirited, fun-loving, horny young guy who enjoys sex and is thrilled to be working in the gay porn industry.

Read on now to learn more about one of Europe's hottest gay porn newcomers.

How old are you? Where are you from originally?

I'm 19 and was born in Antwerp, Belgium which is very gay minded with nice people.

What inspired you to become involved with the gay porn industry?

I was always interested in porn. I watched a lot of it from a young age! I used to do some modeling when I was 17 in the USA: fashion, underwear and beach shoots, that sort of thing – but sometimes I found it boring. I always wondered what it would be like to do the same thing but have sex too!! When I turned 18, I watched a live sex show and thought – that's for me! So I sent some pictures and a webcam video of me wanking and playing about to a few studios and Simon Booth contacted me the day after and within two days I was in London filming for Eurocreme!

Did you tell any of your family and friends that you were going to be starring in gay porn? If so, how is gay porn perceived in your country?

Before I started doing porn I asked my parents what they thought. They were cool and said if it's what I want, go for it! That said, my mother found a DVD of me and looked at it. At first she was a little shocked, not angry, just shocked. She said if that was what I wanted then fine. One thing that did happen was my sister with her boyfriend watched one of my films without me knowing about it. I was a little surprised but now I guess I have no secrets about what I do! It's much easier for me now that everyone knows – I'm not shy about my job. It's the best job in the world!

You have a very thick cock and a great bubble butt. How big is your cock? Do you get a lot of compliments on your ass?

My cock is 20 cm (8 inches) and yes, I get a lot of compliments about my ass which is nice. I like the comments. Some people even tell me I have the hottest ass they ever saw and wonder if it's for real :- ) Hehe.

How did you first become associated with Eurocreme? What's it like working with Max Lincoln, Simon Booth and the Eurocreme team?

I sent Simon some pictures and a webcam video of me and he contacted me the day after to say they would like to work with me. The Eurocreme office is a very professional studio to work for. When I first arrived at their offices, I thought this is a dream: all hot gay guys – some looking like ex-gay porn stars – all very nice and friendly. They have a good boss and experienced people who work behind the scenes. They clearly know what they are doing! Simon is one of the best directors in the world. He is totally professional and very easy to work with. Eurocreme likes to work their staff hard, but after the scenes they like to relax at great places such as the famous Ivy Restaurant in London or having dinner with Max in Balans.

Did you have any preconceived ideas about what it would be like as an adult performer? What has the experience been like for you so far?

From a young age I liked to watch porn. I thought the performers were normal people and knew they had private lives away from the camera. I have been very lucky with my work and all the people I have worked with have been very professional. I have never had a bad experience. In my view this is the best job in the world – it allows me to travel the world, meeting new people, working for new studios and experiencing a side of life I never thought I could experience. I am fortunate. I have been afforded an opportunity to learn a great deal from all the people I have worked with and my work has enabled me to make some really good friends along the way :-).

So which scenes were actually filmed first? The work you completed for Blake Mason or Eurocreme? Describe the relationship you had while working on set with Blake Mason's team.

Eurocreme and the Indieboyz film were first. It was such a nice scene to do. I didn't know what to expect, as I'd never done porn before, but as soon as I'd done the first scene I knew this was what I wanted to do in life. About one month after this, I worked with Blake Mason. Again, it was fun to work for a studio that was professional and pleasant to be with. That said, it was an experience to work for them as I did the first fisting scene in my life. I didn't know I would like having a hand in my ass – but I did and it was a huge surprise for me and the people on the set :-)

Where do you hope to see yourself in the next few years? Are you currently in college or do you have aspirations beyond the gay porn industry?

I'm not in college anymore, so now I focus on movies. In addition to doing porn I'm also busy doing regular modeling. What the future brings, nobody knows – I'm taking it one step a time!

Do you think gay porn is a legitimate way for young guys to make a living or is it just simply to experience something wild and fun for the first time?

It's both. Most are attracted to the profession with the promise of great sex with good looking guys and loads of cash and in those cases it is simply wild fun. However, porn is a business and if you like sex, work hard at keeping yourself in shape and are honest about what you do, I see no reason why it can be a legitimate career choice.

What made you decide to take on the gig as a judge for The Netherlands?

Simon Booth suggested that I should represent Eurocreme, the studio sponsor for the UK, Netherlands and French auditions. I have worked there several times through Eurocreme and love Amsterdam – it also has some great looking guys and a fantastic attitude about sex. I can't wait for the auditions in June, and am really looking forward to talking to the contestants about the profession and hopefully get to see some really hot guys that I might be working with in the future!

How did you recently become involved with the Europe's Next Gay Porn Star search?

I was asked by the producers of the project; Simon & Dean to represent one of the juries as they felt my involvement would encourage guys who look similar to me to apply. In addition, I've never made a secret of the fact that I am proud to be working in the porn industry and don't mind people knowing what I do for a living – this fits perfectly with the ENGPS mission statement: "Identify Europe's next gay porn star: celebrate their talents, promote their skills and encourage pride in their profession."

What's does Philippe like to do when he's not making hot porn? Any hobbies of fun activities you'd like to share?

I spend time at the gym (obviously), clubbing and I love socializing with family and friends – both of which are happy and supportive of my career choice.

We've gotten a sneak peek of your upcoming Buckshot Productions movie "Beg For It" and since you've been doing porn for American studios one wonders how this is possible. Do you actually hold some sort of dual citizenship?

No, I had a visa. I did this filming in January and the studios took care of everything for me – although I had to fill in loads of paperwork for the visa! The U.S. studios told me it was very expensive to bring European performers over to work with, but they all grouped together and split the costs between the three of them: Hot House Entertainment, COLT Studio Group and Next Door Studios. For Next Door I was the first European guy they have worked with.

The cover of “PartyBoy” from Eurocreme is a great glamour shot alongside Kai Cruz. What can you tell me about working with guys like Kai and Matt Hughes? Do you have any favorite scene partners so far that you've worked with?

The “DreamBoy” films are always glamorous and have bigger budgets than most other productions. They spend more time on the “DreamBoy” productions. It was great to work with Kai and Matt. They are very nice English boys. I’m lucky. I always get scene partners I enjoy working with. Each performer is different and that’s what I like. One goal I had was to do a scene with Cody Cummings from Next Door Studios because he is one of my favourite performers – and I did. He was amazing and looked even hotter in real life.

You've also appeared recently on English Lads and Next Door Buddies in scenes where you're quite the power bottom. Are you more comfortable as a bottom? Is this what Philippe enjoys both onscreen and off?

I bottomed for the studios because some of their performers are straight and they prefer to fuck. I like to think they just like putting their cock in my tight ass :-). I like to be a bottom. I enjoy the feel of a nice big cock in my ass, but I also can be a top, as I like to fuck. I'm just addicted to sex and like to try new things I guess!

Finally, have people started recognizing you across Europe? How do you handle the attention gay porn has brought to your life?

I'm just being myself. I'm the same guy I was before I did porn. If people recognize me, then that’s cool. Sometimes it can be funny, especially when gay guys do a double take and the realization of who I am registers on their faces

Q&A Chron. of Pomia

Europe's Next Gay Porn Star (www.europesnextgaypornstar.com) by Ganesha Productions recently underwent a sponsorship change and Eurocreme UK and Alphamalemedia will now be substituting for Bel Ami.

New applications for all seven countries are now being sought given the change in the studio sponsors with the next round of auditions being hosted in gay Paris in May, followed by Amsterdam in June and the final in late September/early October.

If you'd like to be one of the hot Euro boys having a shot at working with Philippe then submit an application to the following:
